

Please keep Hawaii's unique radio stations local. We don't want the same radio programming we could hear anywhere in the U.S. We want to continue enjoying the many and assorted voices of a community and way of life we love.